Dear Parent/Carer

NEU Strike Action – Wednesday 5 and Friday 7 July

Unfortunately the government and the National Education Union continue their dispute over a fully funded pay settlement. As a result the NEU has announced two further days of strike action. This action is targeted directly at the government who has failed to provide a fully funded, above-inflation pay rise for all teachers.

Two strike days have been announced: Wednesday 5 and Friday 7 July

We know that we currently have 53 teaching members of the NEU at Allerton Grange (50% of our teaching staff), and it is our assumption that each member is likely to strike. In addition, we predict some staff will have to juggle childcare difficulties with primary schools closing. We have completed a risk assessment which recognises safeguarding risks as high, as a result we are unable to operate as normal. Therefore, we are making the following contingency plans for both days.

- School will be closed for students in Years 7, 8 and 9. These students will be expected to engage in independent remote learning, available on the website, along with Class Charts. A text message will be sent to parents with a link to the remote learning.
- Pastoral and SEND teams have identified up to 50 vulnerable students who will be invited into school to work online throughout the day. These students will be supervised by pastoral teams.
- The plans for Year 12 and Year 10 are as follows:
  - Year 12 students will be expected to attend school from 09:35 and follow their usual timetable. If any of their lessons are cancelled, we expect students to study independently in the Sixth Form Centre. They will finish school at their usual time.
  - Year 10 students will be expected to attend school from 08:45. They will be sitting a full day of PPE exams and will be dismissed at the end of the afternoon exam. On Wednesday 5 July, Year 10 will be dismissed at 1.00 pm; and on Friday 7 July, they will be dismissed at 12.10 pm.

All students in Years 10 and 12, and invited vulnerable students, are expected to be in school. Any non-attendance will be recorded as unauthorised.

The Awards Evening on 5 July and the Year 11 Prom on 7 July will still go ahead as scheduled.

Yours faithfully

Mr M Roper
